

ENABLE TALK

USES GLOVES WITH SENSORS TO TRANSLATE SIGN LANGUAGE INTO TEXT ON A SMARTPHONE.

Project URL: enabletalk.com

- Social Exclusion
- Social Software
- Physical Computing
- Internet
- Mobile

Enable Talk is a translation service for sign language. Its gloves are embedded with sensors that translate the gestures of sign language into text on a smartphone. The text is then spoken aloud so that those who don't use sign can understand speech and hearing-impaired people.

Last updated: 09th of May, 2014